

Essay Write-up Competition 2021

To celebrate 50 years of independence, the Centre of Governance Studies (CGS) has announced a countrywide essay writing competition for youths titled "50 years Achievement of Bangladesh". The competition is open for all students enrolled in Intermediate/A levels, Honors, and Master's programs. The write-ups should be based on -

The topic for Intermediate/A levels: "Highlight Bangladesh's progress as a nation in the 50 years since her inception".

The topic for Honors/Masters: "Analyze the changing role of Bangladesh on the world stage in the last 50 years".

Guidelines:

- The length of each essay should not exceed 1500 words;
- Every participant must send a scanned copy of their student ID to prove studentship;
- The essay can be in English or Bengali;
- Only one write-up can be submitted by one individual;
- Individuals with already published and plagiarized write-ups will not be considered as participants.

The Deadline to submission is:

30 November 2021 at email: ed@cgs-bd.com

Our Judges will pick the best submissions on the above categories and the selected essays will be published in the form of a compilation. The compilation will be presented publicly on the final day of CGS's yearlong program titled "50th year of Bangladesh" (20th December 2021, InterContinental Dhaka). The winners of the essay competition will be honoured at the event.
